

Science For a Changing North IV

“Northern Watersheds and Ring of Fire Area Studies”

Highlighting Research by Theme 1 Participants in the NSERC Canadian Network for Aquatic Ecosystems Services

Wednesday, February 18th, 2015

Vale Living with Lakes Centre, Laurentian University, Sudbury, ON.

Speakers Include:

Cheryl Chetkiewicz (Wildlife Conservation Society Canada)

Getting it Right in the Ring of Fire: The case for regional environmental planning and how to get there

Bill Keller (Laurentian)

Lakes in the Far North of Ontario: status and changes

Speaker TBA

Mining Industry Science Needs

Heidi Swanson (Waterloo)

Interactions of life history and mercury accumulation in northern rivers

Brian Branfireun (Western)

Climate & Land Use Change Impacts in Far North Peatlands: Implications for Carbon and Mercury Cycling

Tom Johnston (OMNRF)

Mercury in fish communities of the Attawapiskat River drainage

John Gunn (Laurentian)

35 Years of Fisheries Research in the Sutton River Watershed: Building on Traditional Knowledge

John Bailey (OMOEC)

Far North Stream Baseline Data Collections and Research

Daniel Campbell (Laurentian)

Mitigation of Mining Activities in the Hudson bay Lowlands

April James (Nipissing)

Watershed Classification Studies in the Attawapiskat Watershed

David Pearson (Laurentian)

Science Communication and First Nations Engagement

Cost: $30.00 (for coffee breaks and lunch) collected same day (cash) or by invoice.

Register via email: livingwithlakes@laurentian.ca by Wednesday, Feb. 11, 2015